

Quiz #2 - Biblical Counseling

Posted: 5/1/09

Due: 5/8/09

These are intended to be “short answer” (key phrases or one sentence) questions! Use a separate sheet of paper for your answers. The questions are generally in the same order as the material in your text book. Note that question #1 counts 24% of this quiz grade.

1. Have you read all of the required material in the textbook? (pgs. 213-312)
2. List one verse of Scripture that has to do with child-rearing and give the moral of the verse.
3. List 4 causes of problems in children that can be addressed through biblical counseling.
4. What is ADHD?
5. What is your opinion of ADD/ADHD? Is it a real mental disorder? If so, how should it be identified and treated? (Remember, short answers)
6. What are the 3 responsibilities biblical counselors have in working with the problems of children?
7. Research shows that adolescents as a whole are in turmoil, at the mercy of their impulses, resistant to parental values, and rebellious. True or false?
8. What are the 4 important questions that adolescents want to have answered?
9. List one verse of Scripture that applies specifically to young men or young men and give the moral of the verse.
10. What are the 4 ways teens deal with problems?
11. When a teen tells you that they are having sexual intercourse should you tell the parents? Why or why not?
12. What are the 3 greatest challenges of the 20 – 30 year old group?
13. Are 20 – 30 years olds more or less likely to be flexible, enthusiastic, willing to change, and less threatened by the idea of counseling than someone in an older age group?
14. What is the most common difficulty that parents face when relating to their children in the 20 – 30 age group?
15. Is age forty the midpoint of life? Why or why not?
16. What are three changes that may initiate a mid-life psychological crisis?
17. What is generativity?
18. List one verse of Scripture that instructs us how we are to treat older people and give the moral of the verse.
19. Name three possible physical causes of problems in elders that we may have to deal with in biblical counseling.
20. There is a story in the book about a woman named Liz Carpenter. What five fears did she struggle with as she entered her later years?